

Run to the Lectern

Approximately 87 years ago Ralph Smedly began his journey to make Toastmasters a place for members like you and me to become proficient in the art of public speaking and leadership programs.

Toastmasters as we know it today is responsible for over four million member that have been successful in the art of public speaking and leadership programs.

this training will give you the ability to be a professional speaker for all occasions. It will make you fearless for the rest of your life. It will make you a top notch leader that can do any job when asked, any time.

I want you to go home and write a speech and put the speech in your back pocket. Any chance you get raise your hand and run to the lectern. Be ready to speak at the drop of a hat, anywhere, any time.

Tell the V.P.E. you're ready to go. Raise your hand and be ready to deliver. Let's get a move on for your success.

Lance Miller, the World Champion of Public Speaking, says "The more speeches you make the less fear you will have."

Carolyn Cousins-Goldman says, "Make your speech, make your point and you will soon become a professional speaker." Raise your hand and go for it at the lectern. Toastmasters greatness is at your fingertips.

Follow the manuals and you will soon be a professional speaker. Raise your hand and run to the lectern.

Between you and me there ain't no fear.

District 52 Toastmasters

Carolyn Cousins-Goldman, District 52 Governor, Linda Cota-Kumagai, Lt Governor of Education, Jo Lauricella, Lt Governor of Marketing

Ron Rosate, Division B Governor